ROYAL VISIT TO END PRECEDENTS

customed to going to parties at Buckingham Palace.

Don't expect to see any crown jewels or ermine. There won't be any. Such jewels as the queen wears will be simply personal jewels.

There will be lots of chances to see the rulers of the biggest empire on earth.

First, there is the arrival of the royal party at Niagara Falls late on June 7. In Washington there will be repeated opportunities as their majesties fill engagements in various parts of the city.

Then there will follow the visit to New York City and the New York Word's Fair, June 10, and a motor trip, along parkways, from New York City to the president's home at Hyde Park, N. Y., late on the afternoon of June 10.

FAMILY OF SIX DIES IN BLAZE

OTTUMWA, Ia., April 22.—(UP)—Six members of the Charles Helmick family perished today in a fire which swept their home here.

Helmick, 41-year-old trucker, died in an attempt to rescue five of his children trapped in an upstairs room by flames.

His wife and five other children who were downstairs escaped, although two of the children were burned critically.

Besides Helmick, the dead are Lola and Leota, 12-year-old twins; Donald, 8; Helen, 7, and Darrell, 4.

Joe, 10, and Max, one month old, were near death from burns, but another child, Charles, Jr., 11, was expected to recover.

The fire started when Joe and Charles, Jr., used oil to start a fire in the stove.

BICYCLE RIDER HIT BY HIT, RUN DRIVER

Thomas Higginbotham, 15 years old, Ninth street and Margaret avenue, was injured shortly after 7 o'clock Saturday night when he was knocked from his bicycle by a hit-and-run automobile driver at Second and Cruft streets. The youth was taken to St. Anthony's hospital in a Gillis ambulance. Hospital attaches reported that the youth's injuries were not believed serious.

The accident was witnessed by Billy Erne, 17 years old, 1222 South

TRIERWEILER CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF'S OFFICE

John Trierweiler, former sheriff of Vigo county, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for sheriff of Vigo county, subject to the vote in the May primaries. Trierweiler served as sheriff of Vigo county for the years of 1941 and 1942 and was the democratic nominee for sheriff in the 1942 election.

Born in Terre Haute, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Trierweiler, the father a veteran grocer of Terre Haute, he was educated in the parochial and public schools of Terre Haute. He entered the business world and for some time was with the Goodman clothing store as a salesman. Later he became the manager and owner of the Ajax Coal Company, a retail agency. He has been prominent in civic and fraternal affairs.

Trierweiler stated that during his first term as sheriff he made an attempt to enforce the law without fear or favor, and regardless of creed, color or race. During his term as sheriff he inaugurated the sheriff's rural patrol car.

He says: "If elected I will continue this service, and also give the same prompt service in serving all papers that come to my office."
